RED AND BLACK

ANDREW TRIANTAFILLOU

Dear Mr. "T",

Too many times students have graduated from high school or college without ever saying thank-you to certain teachers who have done so much for them. These teachers never know exactly how much they have meant to the students.

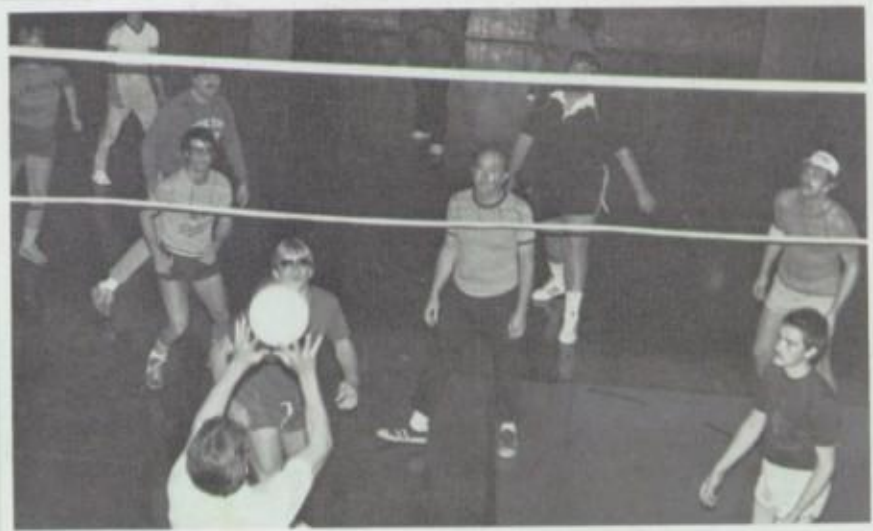

As this year's graduating class of Stevens High School, we do not want to make that same mistake. We would like to thank you publicly by dedicating our yearbook to you. As a Biology teacher, you have proven yourself to be one of the best. For most of us, our biggest fear was the thought of having Mr. Triantafillou's infamous Biology Laboratory. However, as we look back, we must admit that it was one of our best classes, and from it, we gained a new friend.

Once again we thank you for all you have done for the students of Stevens High School. We wish you the best of luck, and we hope that you will continue to be the best at Stevens.

*Sincerely,
The Class of '85*

SPIRIT OF STEVENS

1984 JUNIOR PROM

On May 19, 1984, the class of 1985 reconstructed the gymnasium to represent a place in Verona, Italy. With the theme of Romeo and Juliet we couldn't fail. It was a romantic night for all to remember. The climax of the evening was the crowning of the new Prom Queen, Tracey Breen, escorted by Jeff Geil. Her outstanding court consisted of Lexi Spanos, escorted by Chad Simineau, Stephanie Alyward, escorted by Rusty Fowler, Charlene Alcorn, escorted by Darrin Spaulding, and Sonya Ramirez, escorted by Mike Waleneus.

Ode to the Underclassmen

*Being a Senior, here at Stevens High, having happy memories, yet sad enough to cry.
 Remembering my freshman year, the first year in high school,
 upper classmen snobbing me, and the senior class would rule.
 Being a Freshman, the lowest rank at Stevens, wasn't always easy, but we always would break even.
 Moving up the ladder Sophomore time was here,
 No longer a pee-wee freshman, no longer full of fear.
 Tenth grade wasn't easy, but it sure was lots of fun.
 We were almost human beings allowed to see the sun.
 My Junior Year was special, when maturity set in.
 School spirit was a big thing, for all our teams to win.
 But then that wondrous time will come, that everyone will want,
 Senior year had come at last, and time for us to taunt.
 Twelve long years we've waited for this privilege to occur.
 To be the best, and tease the rest, and let all the past blurr.
 But not that I'm a Senior, I can honestly state it's true,
 Freshman, Sophomores, Juniors, I have respect for you.
 We may tease, and taunt you, and you life may want to end,
 But when it comes to little things, we do consider you our friend!*

This year's Cardinal Football Team had a sense of winning, a sense of pride. Led by tri-captains Doug O' Hara, Corey Plourde, and Rick Santaw, the team finished the season at 5-4. This year's team established the foundations for C.V.L. teams to watch for in 1985. In addition, they found the true meaning of CARDINAL PRIDE.

Despite being ravaged by graduation, the 1984 Stevens Field Hockey team displayed strong character. This scrappy bunch gave 100 percent every game, providing a tough game for every opponent. Showing consistent improvement throughout the year, this team developed into an extremely close knit group both on and off the field. Thus, the year was rewarding in many ways for all players.

STEP BACK! Here comes Julie

In addition, the Cardinals finally received the recognition long over due by placing 5 players on the All State Team and one on the All New England team. The established goals serve as a measure for all teams in the future. Congratulations on an outstanding season, and may a state title arrive in the near future.

The season was highlighted by the recapturing of the Bernard Cup and some outstanding performances by the team as a whole. Although next year should be a rebuilding season, it is safe to assume that there is much success yet ahead for Stevens Soccer.

Though we will be farther apart from each other than ever, we are actually closer to each other than ever. Our activities and goals have changed and our homes and daily habits are changed but we still have the same souls in need of one another, in need of our precious friendship.

REFLECTIONS

REFLECTIONS

Friend, who you are and what you mean to me are expressed of what life means to me. I am thankful that in this time our paths merge. Only the future knows how long we will be changed because of our common experiences. Let's enjoy the walk together and celebrate the person each of us brings to the journey and the friends we are becoming along the way.

*Memories of laughter and of tears
All of them made through the years.
The parties, the dances, and the fun,
Was the high school years rolled into one.*

*Remember the friends, the times that were shared,
Remember all the people that showed they cared.
Remember all the classes, and try to forget
The homework that is still to come yet.*

*Don't think of graduation as the end,
Think of it as your one true friend.
Cause even though the high school days are gone,
You still have the memories to carry on.*

Liane Stevens '85

It's time to leave, our beginning is coming to a close, and so we look toward tomorrow...but let's look at yesterday and today. We arrived here alone and began our adventure together, slowly, carefully not sure of what we wanted. But during our time, we gave up our loneliness and insecurities, we gained new friends, confidence in ourselves, and a special feeling which cannot be defined by words. We leave so much stronger, for we have shared deeply. I look at you and smile...you are my friend.

I haven't seen you in a while, yet I often imagine all your expressions. I haven't spoken to you recently but many times I hear your thoughts. Good friends must not always be together. It is the feeling of oneness when distant that proves a lasting friendship.

Our friendship has taken on new meaning in the long time since we traded comic books and shared the same heroes. How we rarely see each other, but when we do meet, we sit for hours discussing our lives and it is though we never parted. It is comforting to know that whatever happens, whether bad or good, there is a friend who understands.
